

SOFT-TIAFT 2026 Joint Meeting

Exhibitor Prospectus

Welcome Message

Exhibitors play a vital role in shaping the SOFT-TIAFT Joint Meeting experience. This global gathering brings together forensic toxicologists, laboratory leaders, researchers, educators, and industry partners from across the world to exchange knowledge, build meaningful relationships, and advance the field.

The 2026 SOFT-TIAFT Joint Meeting provides a warm and collaborative environment designed to help exhibitors engage directly with international attendees representing diverse markets, regulatory environments, and laboratory systems. As an exhibitor, you gain exposure to decision-makers who influence instrumentation purchasing, workflow configurations, method development, and toxicology program strategy across continents.

Why Exhibit at SOFT-TIAFT

Benefit from Two Meetings in One

The 2026 SOFT-TIAFT Joint meeting merges the expertise and global reach of two leading organizations in forensic toxicology:

- SOFT (Society of Forensic Toxicologists): Known for its focus on practical casework, method validation and laboratory operations in North America
- TIAFT (The International Association of Forensic Toxicologists): A global network emphasizing research, emerging trends, and international standards.

By exhibiting at this joint meeting, you gain:

- Global Audience: Access to both SOFT and TIAFT members — laboratory directors, toxicologists, researchers, and educators from around the world.
- Enhanced Networking: Build relationships that span continents, opening doors to collaborations and new business opportunities.

- Expanded Market Reach: Engage with decision-makers from diverse regulatory environments and laboratory systems.

Leverage Distinct Advantages

- Compared to broad forensic conferences, toxicology is not just one subject among many, but the shared focus of nearly all attendees.
- Compared to toxicology-focused vendor expos, SOFT-TIAFT centers on the science and practice of forensic toxicology, where real-world casework, methods, validation, and laboratory needs drive discussion, not only marketplace offerings.

Because of this dual distinction, exhibitors benefit from sustained, high-quality interactions with attendees actively involved in:

- Analytical instrumentation decisions
- Laboratory workflow and automation
- Method development and validation
- Outsourcing and procurement
- Research and academic collaboration

With attendees traveling from around the world, the Joint Meeting connects industry partners to new markets, new clients, and collaborative opportunities that extend beyond a single country or region.

Exhibitor Benefits

All exhibitors receive:

- One all-access exhibitor badge (scientific sessions, networking events, meals, receptions)
- Listing in the mobile app
- Listing in the digital program book
- Listing on the SOFT-TIAFT website

Additional exhibitor badges may be purchased for $900.
